LOCAL NEWS.

For this section fair weather, slightly colder, athwesterly winds.

PERSONAL -Mr. Robert Portuer cele traited his 50th birthday at his residence in Washington on Sunday night. There was a large number of guests present and an en-joyable time was spent. Mr. Portner will sail next Friday for Europe to be absent four months.

Among the society items in the Washington papers is the following: "The Misses Lyons, of Virginia, who are passing the winter in town, are great belles and favor-

Mrs. F. J. Davidson fell down stairs at her residence, on Royal street, yesterday and was hadly bruised.

Mr. C. H. Heustis, of the Philadelphia Times, and wife are making a short visit to their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Reed, on Prince street.

Mr. Peter Wise, of this city, who has been ill in Prince William county, is able to walk about the house.

Mr. Edgar Warfield left here this morning for Richmond to attend a meeting of the State Pharmacutical Association, which meets there to morrow.

Mr. Leonard Brown is quite sick at his home in Fairfax county, near this city. Among those in attendance on the session of the Circuit Court to-day were Gen. Eppa Hunten, Msj. R. T. Scott and Mr. Linden

Court adjourned till to-morrow morning.

PRESENTATION. -Mr. Robt. Bell, late Superintendent of the W., O. & W. railroad, who has recently been transferred to the engineering department of the Richmond and Danville road at Goldsboro', N. C., was last night presented by the employees of the W. O. & W. road with a handsome gold headed cane as a token of the regard and esteem in which he is held by them. The presentation was made in Mr. Bell's former office in this city by Mr. Hubert Snowden on behalf of the employees, who, he said, wished in this way to acknowledge the kindness and courtesy with which they had been treated by Mr. B. while he was superintendent of the road. Mr. Bell, in accepting the cane, returned his hearty thanks for the compliment, and said it would always be a pleasant reminder of his sojourn in Alexandria, and especially his relations with the employees of the W., O.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Pittsburg Dis-putch says of the Wallace Villa combination, who will give a performance in this city next Thursday night. "The entertainment last evening at the Opera House was a most delightful and pleasing performance. Agnes Wallace Villa carried the audience with her, and the entire company has won an enviable reputation."

A large house greeted Benedict's Monte Cristo Company last night. Mr Benedict, as Elmond Dantes, played the part as only a finished actor could, while Miss Ackerman, as Mercedes, showed herself to be possessed of emotional power of a high order. The other members of the company acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the au-

FIRE AT FRONT ROYAL .- A private letter received in this city to-day, says that a fire at Front Royal on Sunday destroyed four buildings and their contents and partially damaged several others. The loss is estimated at $5,000 and the insurance at $4,500. The buildings destroyed were those occupied by Luther J. Roy, agricultural implements; O. F. Downs, blacksmith; Ramey & Son, barroom; J. S. Triplett, phosphates; a stable, and an unoccupied building. It was with difficulty that the depot building was saved.

NOT LIKE SPRING .- The .rain which fell at intervals from noon yesterday in a fine spray got heavier as night approached, then developed into pouring showers, and at 9 o'clock was accompanied by heavy flakes of soow. By half past ten the streets were covered to the depth of an inch by a very wet snow. Although the temperature throughout was mild, yet the first night of spring was as disagreeable, if not more so, than the severest night of winter. Early this morning the sidewalks were covered with a deep slush, which made walking anything but agreeable.

A NEW GREAT GUN .-- General John M. Brooke, of Virginia, formerly of the U.S. navy, who was the originator of the present system of deep sea soundings, has written to a New York paper regarding a new gun which has been designed by Colonel Scott Shipp, of the Virginia Military Institute, which it is believed, will accomplish the same results as Krupp guns of like calibre, and weigh only about two thirds as much as the latter. The gas check is claimed to be more perfect than any now in use.

THE BIDS for filling up the vacant lot at the southwest corner of Princess and Alfred streets were opened by Superintendent of Police Dobie to day. They ranged from Police Dobie to day. They ranged from $377 down to $40. The two lowest bids were these of Thos. Grady, $40 and A. Southerland, $72, but these parties are not known and the bids are supposed to be fictitious. If these parties do not appear by noon tomorrow the contract will be awarded to the next lowest bidder.

THE ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY .-At a meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry, held last night, it was decided to order the new uniforms for the company at once, and that they should consist of red swallow-tail coats and dark blue pants. A committee was appointed to take the matter in charge and see that the uniforms were ready for the company to enter the National Drill to be held in Washington in AMATEUR OARSMEN .- A meeting of the Virginia Association of Amateur Carsmen will be held in Richmond on April 2, to decide upon the time and place for holding the next regatts, and making preparations for the same. The Old Dominion Club of this city will be represented at the meeting.

Fire.—The alarm of fire about 1 o'clock to lay was caused by the partial burning of the frame house on the corner of Pitt and Prin and streats, occupied by a colored woman named Fanny Chapman. The fire department promptly responded and the flames were extinguished after the roof had been partially burned. The loss was slight.

ACCIDENT.-Richard Cleary, a brakeman on the Vs. Midland railway, this morning on the Vs. Midland railway, this morning fell from an engine on the switch just west M. P. Church last night was well attended of the depot, and broke his arm. He was taken to his home on upper Prince street, Capt. Griffin, of the steamer Virginia is where he was attended by Dr. Powell, and is now doing well.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was dark, with rain and snow. There were nine lodgers but no prisoners at the station house. The
